

Specifications for Standard Brightness Monitors

AbraxSys offers a wide range of ultra-rugged industrial-grade LCD monitors for use in harsh-duty environments requiring higher performance, reliability, and dependable protection levels. These monitors operate in high-dust, high-moisture, and both extreme cold and heat to ensure mission-critical operation success. These exceptionally durable display products are commonly used for HMI (human-machine interface) solutions throughout industrial, marine, military, and commercial applications.

Input & Mounting Specifications for Standard Brightness Monitors

AbraxSys offers a wide range of ultra-rugged industrial-grade LCD monitors for use in harsh-duty environments requiring higher performance, reliability, and dependable protection levels. These monitors operate in high-dust, high-moisture, and both extreme cold and heat to ensure mission-critical operation success. These exceptionally durable display products are commonly used for HMI (human-machine interface) solutions throughout industrial, marine, military, and commercial applications.

- INPUT OPTIONS

- MECHANICAL OPTIONS

Specifications for Standard Brightness Touchscreen Monitors

AbraxSys offers a wide range of touchscreen, ultra-rugged industrial-grade LCD monitors for use in harsh-duty environments requiring higher performance, reliability, and dependable protection levels. These monitors operate in high-dust, high-moisture, and both extreme cold and heat to ensure mission-critical operation success. These exceptionally durable display products are commonly used for HMI (human-machine interface) solutions throughout industrial, marine, military, and commercial applications.

- TOUCHSCREEN OPTIONS

- OPTIONS